

I am a resident of Oklahoma County and K-LOVE serves our community well. The programming is encouraging to me as a listener and helps to relieve stress while I'm working from my home based business. It is in the public interest that we continue to receive this FM station, and that you do NOT allow LPFM stations to take priority over the current FM translator service.